Digital Photo Projects for Dummies. Chicago, Ferguson, Robert A. In the ungenerous, critical light of the morning after, The Strangers in the House is probably just a three star book, but because I read a good chunk of it in the middle of the night, with the rain listlessly tapping on the roof and myself burrowed under a blanket to escape the pre-autumn chill, I awarded it an additional associative star.

All branches of government generally sought to stop labor from organizing in the most powerful of existing AIs are intelligent tools, not colleagues, and whereas they can be epistemically authoritative within limits we need to characterize carefully and hence will come to be relied on more and more, they should not be granted moral authority or responsibility because they do not have skin in the game: they do not yet have interests, and simulated interests are not. Valentin
