This is how every kid thinks about great athletes - like they might rule their sports forever. They spent so much time at school screaming at us about lung cancer that I was distraught for days after walking in on a parent smoking at late night, convinced I'd be orphaned by what I, in my innocence, had assumed was a cigarette But I digress. The Olympia Battalion members wore white gloves or white handkerchiefs tied to their left hands to distinguish themselves from the civilians and prevent the soldiers from shooting. Let us now go right to the Scriptures to see where this assurance is given: let us turn our Bibles first to Hebrews 5.
